

RUTGERS

Graduate School of Applied and Professional Psychology

GSAPP Returning Student Scholarships 2023-2024*

Application Deadline: April 26th, 2023

Scholarship Name	Amount	Type (Tuition remission, stipend, Combined)	Program	Application Description
Clinical Department
Bonnie Markham Dissertation Award	Up to $4,500	Dissertation/Research Expense Reimbursement	Clinical	Clinical Department The scholarship is intended for a student whose dissertation pertains to effective psychological services focused on health promotion that is relevant, but not necessarily limited in its application, to the independent practice of psychology in the private sector. Examples are research on interventions related to the interface of psychology and primary care medicine, on collaborative approaches between psychologists and other types of health practitioners, on cross-cultural issues in immigrant families related to psychological and physical health, and so forth.
Nancy McWilliams and Stanley Messer Psychodynamic Endowed Fund	Up to $4,100.00	Tuition Remission	Clinical	Clinical Department These funds are available to support Clinical Psychology students in the area of psychodynamic theory, research and practice.

Scholarship Name	Amount	Type (Tuition remission, stipend, Combined)	Program	Application Description
GSAPP Student Assistantship Endowed Fund	Up to $1,800	Stipend	Clinical	Clinical Department The Fund will provide annual stipend for a GSAPP student(s) to work on a specific project/area under the direction and supervision of a current faculty member(s).
School Department
GSAPP Student Assistantship Endowed Fund	Up to $1,800	Stipend	School	School Department The Fund will provide annual stipend for a GSAPP student(s) to work on a specific project/area under the direction and supervision of a current faculty member(s).
Kenneth and Linda Schneider Scholarship in School Psychology	Up to $3,000	Tuition Remission	School	School Department Academic Merit
GSAPP-Wide
Edith Neimark Dissertation Award-Autism	Up to $2,000	Dissertation/Research Expense Reimbursement	GSAPP Doctoral Student	GSAPP Scholarship Committee This award is for dissertation-related expenses. This award is intended to support dissertation projects being conducted at the Douglass Developmental Disabilities Center (DDDC) only.
Michael Fowlin Endowed Scholarship	Up to $2,200	Tuition Remission	GSAPP Doctoral Student	GSAPP Scholarship Committee The Scholarship is intended for an incoming or full-time graduate student with interest in adolescents.
Rebecca Fine Endowed Fellowship	Up to $2,160	Tuition Remission	GSAPP Doctoral Student	GSAPP Scholarship Committee This donor has an interest in Psychoanalysis. This award is based on Merit.
Trauma Endowed Fund	Up to $1,100	Tuition Remission	GSAPP Doctoral Student	GSAPP Scholarship Committee General support in the area of trauma related to children, adults, and veterans, including, but not limited to, child abuse, military combat trauma, military sexual assault, adult sexual assault, emergencies and natural disasters.

Scholarship Name	Amount	Type (Tuition remission, stipend, Combined)	Program	Application Description
Dean's Academic Excellence Award (One year for one student in each department)	In-State Tuition Remission	In-State Tuition Remission	GSAPP Doctoral Student	GSAPP Scholarship Committee Based on community engagement, commitment to Diversity, Equity & Inclusion (DEI), need, and good standing within one's department; statement of financial need and information from the Financial Aid application (FAFSA) are used to make determinations.

Please note that amounts and qualifications are subject to change.