

GSAPP Returning Student Scholarships
2024

Scholarship Name	Amount	Payment Type (Tuition remission, stipend, Combined)	Number and Program	Application
Clinical Department
Bonnie Markham Dissertation Award	Up to $4,500	Tuition Remission (Awardee must have tuition costs in the next fall semester to be eligible.)	One Clinical student	Clinical Department The scholarship is intended for a student whose dissertation pertains to effective psychological services focused on health promotion that is relevant, but not necessarily limited in its application, to the independent practice of psychology in the private sector. Examples are research on interventions related to the interface of psychology and primary care medicine, on collaborative approaches between psychologists and other types of health practitioners, on cross-cultural issues in immigrant families related to psychological and physical health, and so forth.
Nancy McWilliams and Stanley Messer Psychodynamic Endowed Fund	Up to $4,100	Tuition Remission (Awardee must have tuition costs in the next fall semester to be eligible.)	Clinical students	Clinical Department These funds are available to support Clinical Psychology students in the area of psychodynamic theory, research and practice.
School Department
Kenneth and Linda Schneider Scholarship in School Psychology	Up to $3,000	Tuition Remission (Awardee must have tuition costs in the next fall semester to be eligible.)	School students	School Department Academic Merit

Scholarship Name	Amount	Payment Type (Tuition remission, stipend, Combined)	Number and Program	Application
GSAPP-Wide
GSAPP Student Assistantship Endowed Fund	Up to $3,600	Tuition Remission (Awardee must have tuition costs in the next fall semester to be eligible.)	GSAPP students	Equal Opportunities Committee The Fund will provide annual stipends for GSAPP student(s) to work on a specific project/area under the direction and supervision of a current faculty member(s)
Dean's Student Life Award	$500	Tuition Remission (Awardee must have tuition costs in the next fall semester to be eligible.)	One GSAPP student	Equal Opportunities Committee For contribution to student life. Presented to the student who has done the most for foster and enhance the quality of life at GSAPP during the academic year.
Edith Neimark Dissertation Award-Autism	Up to $2,000	Dissertation/Research Expense Reimbursement	GSAPP students (DDDC preference)	Director of Douglass Developmental Disabilities Center This award is for dissertation or research related expenses. This award is intended to support dissertation or research projects with priority given to those conducted at the DDDC.
Michael Fowlin Endowed Scholarship	Up to $2,200	Tuition Remission (Awardee must have tuition costs in the next fall semester to be eligible.)	GSAPP students	Equal Opportunities Committee The Scholarship is intended for an incoming or full time graduate student with interest in adolescents.
Rebecca Fine Endowed Fellowship	Up to $2,160	Tuition Remission (Awardee must have tuition costs in the next fall semester to be eligible.)	GSAPP students	Equal Opportunities Committee This donor has an interest in Psychoanalysis. This is award is based on Merit.
Trauma Endowed Fund	Up to $1,100	Tuition Remission (Awardee must have tuition costs in the next fall semester to be eligible.)	GSAPP students	Equal Opportunities Committee General support in the area of trauma related to children, adults, and veterans, including but not limited to child abuse, military combat trauma, military sexual assault, adult sexual assault, emergencies and natural disasters.