

College Support Program (CSP) COVID-19 Management Plan (04/24/2020)

CSP Services

Coordinator Meetings:

Students are meeting with their CSP Coordinator as scheduled. CSP Coordinator meetings are being conducted via Webex teleconferencing service. Students should have activated their accounts by March 23rd, however step-by-step directions regarding how to activate their Webex account (directions included, see page 12-13) and how to join a Webex meeting (directions included, see page 14-16) remain posted in this document.

Students must have access to a microphone and webcam to be able to fully participate in the meeting (these devices will likely be needed for other class participation, so it is important that they have access to them).

Parents: You should have received an email from Kim on Monday, April 13th regarding re-enrollment for the 2020 – 2021 academic year. Please reply as soon as possible, but by the latest Monday, June 1st, advising us if you plan to return to CSP in the fall.

RCAAS Newsletter:

The Rutgers Center for Adult Autism Services, of which CSP is a part, has launched a newsletter entitled On the Spectrum in Adulthood. CSP families have automatically been included on the email distribution list. We hope you find it interesting, informative, and full of helpful resources; however, should you have any concerns or wish to unsubscribe, please email me privately.

Peer Mentors:

The Peer Mentor relationship is one of the pillars of the CSP; we wish to maintain these relationships across the University's closure. Thus, we have asked the Peer Mentors to provide a weekly check-in with their student(s) beginning the week of March 23rd via text, FaceTime, Skype, or phone call.

Social Events:

All in-person social events have been canceled for the remainder of the semester, as per the University's guidelines regarding large group meetings.

Virtual Social Events

The CSP will be hosting weekly Kahoot/game nights every Monday evening from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM via Webex (see flyer on page 18). The events will be facilitated by members of the Peer Mentor Executive Board, and all CSP students and Peer Mentors are encouraged to participate and can drop in at any point during the social event time. The first Virtual Social Event will take place Monday, April 13th and will continue on a weekly basis until May 4th.

Quarantine Cuisine

The Peer Mentor Executive Board is collecting recipes in an online cookbooc, “Quarantine Cuisine”. CSP students are encouraged to include their favorite recipe(s) in the shared Google Document.

Rutgers Day

“For years Rutgers has celebrated spring with a day of learning, exploring, and fun on Rutgers Day, and we will continue that tradition this year, virtually. Rutgers Day fans can join us on Facebook for "Virtual Rutgers Day" on April 25 from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. and tune in for program posts throughout the day, including performances, demonstrations, activities, and photos of favorite programs. A detailed schedule and program specifics will be posted on the Rutgers Day Facebook page and website (<https://rutgersday.rutgers.edu/>) in the coming days. All Virtual Rutgers Day content will also be available on the Rutgers Day website for on-demand viewing.”

Advising:

All advising appointments will continue via phone or Webex meetings. Students are encouraged to work with their coordinator to set up an advising meeting to plan for Fall 2020 courses and potential Summer 2020 courses. The link to the schedule of classes can be found via <https://sis.rutgers.edu/soc/#home>.

Summer Course Update via Barbara A. Lee, Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs:

As you know, the U.S., New Jersey, and Rutgers University communities continue to be seriously affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, and there is little certainty about when the current crisis will subside. I am writing to clarify that the only University-sponsored courses/programs/activities that will take place this summer on the Camden, Newark and New Brunswick campuses will be done via remote technology. This cancellation does not apply to RBHS clinical programs and activities; please check with the relevant RBHS office to ascertain the status of RBHS summer programs, courses and activities.

There will be no in-person classes, programs, camps, conferences or other activities at Rutgers University through at least August 14. Information related to fall orientations and intercollegiate pre-season athletic activity will be forthcoming.

Dates to keep in mind:

- May 7th, 2020 – 6:30AM: Last day to register for summer courses without a late fee

From the Office of the Provost:

<https://nbprovost.rutgers.edu/new-academic-policies-resources-remote-learning>

“For undergraduate students, if you believe your academic performance will be adversely affected due to disruptions caused by COVID-19, we will offer you a new option to change one or more courses from letter grading to Pass/No Credit (P/NC) grading. We understand that these are unprecedented times, and have extended the deadline to make this decision to May 22, well after the semester is completed, and one week after final grades have been submitted. The extended timeline will allow you ample time to review, consult and then make the appropriate decision should this option be the right one for those of you severely disadvantaged by the COVID-19 disruption.

We do encourage you to consult with your academic advisor prior to opting-in, as this grade change may have certain implications for your academic progress, career path, and financial aid standing.

Update April 9th: Students will be able to access a new website specifically intended for them to designate classes as P/NC. Students will log-in using their NetID credentials, and will be able to choose which of their Spring 2020 classes they want to designate as P/NC. They will then need to click to submit their selection. The website has not yet launched but is expected to be up within the next few weeks.

- Please review the full policy to learn more about this option; further details for the opt-in process will be forthcoming

From Academic Affairs:

“The 2020 Rutgers University summer session will proceed as scheduled. Because of the spread of the COVID-19 virus, instruction for all courses will be offered remotely. As you know, spring 2020 courses are being offered via remote instruction, and we will utilize that same delivery system for summer session courses.

Registration is open for summer session classes. Please direct any questions you might have about course offerings to the school or department offering the course, or to the dean's office of the school in which you are enrolled or wish to be enrolled."

From the Office of the Registrar:

"All New Brunswick undergraduate students who anticipate finishing degree requirements within the coming year MUST apply online for graduation by the deadline dates listed below.

By completing the Online Diploma Application, students will be certain to receive their requested "Diploma Name" with the correct spacing, spelling and accent marks; tell us if they will attend graduation; update their email address, phone number, and permanent address; and indicate whether they prefer to have their diploma mailed or picked up in the Registrar's Office.

Office of Disability Services- Accommodations

From the Office of Disability Services (04/14/20)

- During remote instruction the Office of Disability Services (ODS) is not proctoring on campus exams. This means that students are not submitting requests to take their exams with our office. They have been advised to reach out to faculty regarding online exam arrangements.
- We are strongly encouraging students to provide their Letters of Accommodation (LOA) to you by Thursday, April 23, 2020 if they have not done so already.
- It has come to our attention that Proctortrack is designed for 90 minute exams and may not work optimally for longer exams. Some faculty are choosing to issue their exams as part 1 and part 2 to provide students with a more optimal test taking experience.

- Students may ask if you are taking questions during the exam. Many will not be able to email/text you if you are using software like Proctortrack to let you know if their accommodations, such as extended time, do not appear to be working. Please consider how a student may be able to reach you if something goes wrong while taking their exam.
- Any student who has a time conflict (due to another exam or class which overlaps with yours) will be directed to notify both professors involved. In most cases this is solved by one professor agreeing to allow the student to take the exam at a different time or day.

While we are not scheduling exams, we are still working tirelessly to provide support for both students during these uncertain times. Additionally, ODS and Rutgers Access and Disability Resources (RADR) have put together some resources for both students and faculty to assist with the transition to online instruction and testing. You can find these linked below.

In accordance with Executive Order No. 2020-01 (https://sites.rutgers.edu/coronavirus/wp-content/uploads/sites/425/2020/03/Calcado_Order_March_26.pdf), all students who departed from on-campus housing on or after the March 10th directive from President Barchi, must return to campus and retrieve their belongings between March 28-April 14. Please know that the University will take measures to ensure that move out is conducted in an orderly and safe manner, which maintains the necessary social distancing. We realize this new and expedited timeline differs from our previous instructions.

OUR NEW MOVE-OUT PROCESS AND TIMELINE:

Move-out appointments will now begin on Saturday, March 28th and will be available through Tuesday, April 14th only. Halls must be empty by this date.

The number of appointments offered far exceeds the number of residents per building to ensure residents and their helpers will be able to practice social distancing during the move-out process. If your original move-out appointment was between April 3rd and April 14th, you are welcome to keep your appointment time if desired. If you would like to change your appointment time, you can do so via SignUp Genius. Either:

Per President Barchi's email regarding Commencement (4/3/20):

To Our May 2020 Graduates:

I am writing to you regarding our decision to suspend in-person commencements across Rutgers during May. I want you to know that this decision was an extremely difficult and unhappy one to make, despite the clear necessity of keeping our community safe and healthy during this pandemic.

We recognize the profound sadness that disrupting a milestone moment, for which you and so many thousands of Rutgers students have worked so hard, is causing. We know how much your families and friends have looked forward to celebrating your achievements with you. And I know personally how much I have been looking forward to taking part in my final commencement week as president of this remarkable institution.

While we cannot go forward with the in-person May commencements we were planning, the University has formed a working group comprising people from all our locations with faculty, staff, and student perspectives that is looking urgently at alternatives which will allow us to properly salute our graduating students. We are considering the most meaningful ways in which we can celebrate our graduates remotely this spring and, at the same time, exploring the feasibility and options for also holding in-person celebrations at a future date when the public health threat has subsided. Each campus will be soliciting feedback from their May graduates on possible options.

We want to bring people together to salute our graduates. We are committed to finding the best possible solution given the unprecedented constraints we currently face, and recognizing the central part that Commencement plays in the life of every academic community. Please bear in mind that it may be quite some time before we have clarity on what is possible.

I hope you will understand this extremely difficult decision and trust that we will do all we can to give you and your fellow classmates a fitting celebration. You certainly deserve it!
