

GSAPP Community Psychology Concentration

Requirement Checklist

Name of student:

Requirements:

A. Practicum

Community Psychology Practicum. One semester, one day per week. Subject to approval of CPC Practicum Subcommittee based on brief student proposal of community relevance of the practicum.

- Briefly describe the practicum setting and community-related activities:

- Date completed:

B. Courses

1. Program Planning & Evaluation: two semesters

Date completed:

2. Core courses currently required for all GSAPP students that have a community focus:

- Community Psychology
 - Date completed:
- Psychological Interventions Ethnic & Racial Minority Clients and Families; or, Diversity and Racial Identity
 - Date completed:
- Theoretical Foundations of Intervention: Organizational (or Systems)
 - Date completed:

3. Choice of one of the following:

- Crisis Intervention
 - Adult Learning & Training
 - Innovation Implementation and School Change
 - Family Therapy
 - Consultation Methods
 - Qualitative Research Methods
 - Severe Mental Illness
 - Course from another Rutgers unit such as Public Health or Ph.D. Psychology (e.g., Strength-Based Consultation to Religious, Public Education, and Private Education Settings: A Community Psychology Approach) approved by CPC faculty.
-
- Name of course chosen:

 - Date completed:

C. Dissertation

A Community Psychology Dissertation is encouraged but not required. The topic should be related to community psychology and the dissertation committee should include at least one of the listed Community Psychology faculty.

- Dissertation topic:

- Dissertation committee members

Certification:

This student has completed all requirements for the concentration in Community Psychology.

Signature of coordinator of concentration:

Date: