

Visa Webinar Thursday 4/16 for International Scholars/Students

April 13, 2020

To International Students & Scholars:

This email is to notify you of the upcoming Visa Webinar on Thursday April 16th from 3:00 PM-4:30 PM on Zoom. We are hosting this webinar in light of recent events that add a layer of precariousness to our lives. As we've heard from you, our international students and scholars, the closure of embassies and the lack of clarity on ensuring documentation options is terrifying.

We understand this and have assembled a webinar panel of immigration leaders at Rutgers and beyond who we hope can begin the work of giving international members of our community some much-needed clarity to the greatest extent possible.

Joining us will be Jessica Rutter, a labor movement lawyer and Assistant Director of the American Federation of Teachers Union's Legal Department, Mohini Mukherjee, Director of Rutgers International Student Services at Rutgers Global, and Dan Berger, a prolific immigration lawyer who authored Immigration Options for Academics and Researchers and speaks widely on immigration issues in higher education.

If you'd like to attend please fill out this survey and RSVP Form that we hope to utilize for adjusting the webinar to our international community's specific needs. Do fill it out if you have any questions or particular concerns. And be assured, this is not a one-off, but a webinar series that we will work to ensure will continue to seek answers to critical questions as they arise. Do notify your friends and colleagues of this webinar if they're here on a Visa. We hope it'll be as helpful as possible and ensure that our international community at the very least has some answers on how to handle their immigration needs in this very difficult time. Here is the Facebook Event for the Zoom Webinar if you'd like to click attending and/or share with folks on social media as well!
